

Vocal

There Is No Breeze

(To Cool the Flame of Love)

music and lyrics by Alex Alstone and Dorothy Dick recorded by Gene Krupa and his Orchestra
September 20, 1946
arranged by George Williams transcribed by Mark Lopeman

slow ♩=70

6

There is no

A

9

breeze to cool the flame of love. These words are 13

all, but all so true of love. We're here to - geth - er, the moon is half. Star - dust is 21

B

17

fall - ing, and so am I. Oh, what a night, there's ma - gic in the air. So hold me

C

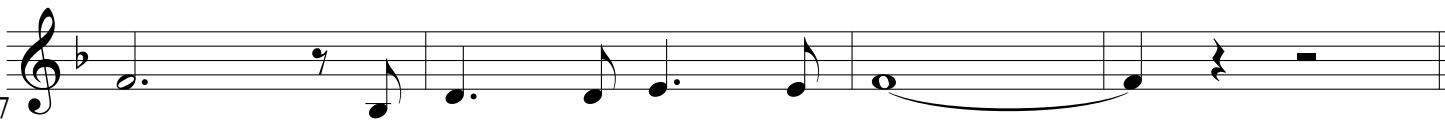

25

29
 tight and tell me that you care. For I'll al - ways a - dore you, true as stars shine a - bove. There is no

D

33

37
 breeze to cool the flame of love. _____

E

F

41
 For I'll al - ways a - dore you, true as stars shine a - bove. There is no breeze to cool the flame of 55

51

 love. _____